

AZZ Inc. Announces Dual Listing on NYSE Texas

FORT WORTH, Texas, Aug. 6, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- AZZ Inc. (NYSE: AZZ), the leading independent provider of hot-dip galvanizing and coil coating solutions in North America, announced today the dual listing of its common stock on NYSE Texas, the new, fully electronic equities exchange based in Dallas, Texas.

"AZZ has been publicly traded on the NYSE for almost three decades and has been based in Texas since its incorporation in 1956," said Tom Ferguson, AZZ's President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are pleased to be a Founding Member of NYSE Texas and show our support to the state we have called home for nearly seventy years. As the Lone Star State's economy continues to thrive and build momentum, we are well-positioned to serve the growing need for sustainable, metal coating solutions that enhance the longevity and appearance of buildings, products and infrastructure that are essential to everyday life."

"As a leading hot-dip galvanizing and coil coating company based in Fort Worth, we are excited to welcome AZZ to our NYSE Texas community," said Chris Taylor, Chief Development Officer, NYSE Group.

Such forward-looking statements are based on currently available competitive, financial, and economic data and management's views and assumptions regarding future events. Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and investors must recognize that actual results may differ from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and are subject to risks that could cause them to differ materially from actual results. Certain factors could affect the outcome of the matters described herein. This press release may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties including, but not limited to, changes in customer demand for our manufactured solutions, including demand by the construction markets, the industrial markets, and the metal coatings markets. We could also experience additional increases in labor costs, components and raw materials including zinc and natural gas, which are used in our hot-dip galvanizing process; supply-chain vendor delays; customer requested delays of our manufactured solutions; delays in additional acquisition opportunities; an increase in our debt leverage and/or interest rates on our debt, of which a significant portion is tied to variable interest rates; availability of experienced management and employees to implement AZZ's growth strategy; a downturn in market conditions in any industry relating to the manufactured solutions that we provide; economic volatility, including a prolonged economic downturn or macroeconomic conditions such as inflation or changes in the political stability in the United States or Canada; tariffs; acts of war or terrorism inside the United States or abroad; and other changes in economic and financial conditions. AZZ has provided additional information regarding risks associated with the business, including in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors, in AZZ's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2025, and other filings with the SEC, available for viewing on AZZ's website at www.azz.com and on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. You are urged to consider these factors carefully when evaluating the forward-looking statements herein and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. These statements are based on information as of the date hereof and AZZ assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
